COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1919 — 123rd of the General Assembly

Vol. 5. HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 11, 1919. No. 61.

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, June 11, 1919.

The Senate met at 10.30 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Edward E. Beidleman) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Thomas W. Davis, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we thank Thee for the sacred influences of home ties, and for all other uplifting fellowships of our lives. We thank Thee that the best things in life can be enjoyed only by those who are willing to share their pleasures and prosperity with others. History teaches us that great men and women have attained their high positions, not by the blessings which they have sought for themselves, but by the service which they have rendered to their fellowmen. Help us all to keep the fires of human brotherhood burning brightly upon the altars of our hearts. These favors we ask in our Saviour's name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

"Whereas The welfare of the State demands that children should be guarded from association and contact with crime and criminals and the ordinary process of the criminal law does not provide such treatment and care and moral encouragement as are essential to all children in the formative period of life but endangers the whole future of the child

And Whereas Experience has shown that children lacking proper parental care or guardianship are led into courses of life which may render them liable to the pains and penalties of the criminal law of the State although in fact the real interests of such child or children require that they be not incarcerated in penitentiaries and jails as members of the criminal class but be subjected to a wise care treatment and control that their evil tendencies may be checked and their better instincts may be strengthened

O Lord God, Thou who canst give unto us and not be the poorer because of Thy great goodness, pour out generously, we pray Thee, Thy loving mercy upon the children of men. For in our spirit of devotion we come to Thee with the thoughts and needs not only of ourselves but of others, and epsecially at this time we lay before Thee, for Thy most merciful care, those who are gathered in our National Capital who have the fearful results of the great and titanic struggle to straighten out and mollify. Since Thou hast called upon this Nation to assume the leadership, right or wrong, grant that that leadership may not be wrong, since it has come to us, but that we may, by Thy grace and Thy favor, give to the world a new era and give to it a greater and a better vision of life; and since we have this tremendous task, may we one and all give to them our full support, that out of this there shall come much for the human race and much for our Nation. Amen.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the resolution?

The Chair declared the "noes" appear to have it,

Whereupon, a division was called for.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, if you are going to open up the door to legislation of this kind, and have bills recalled after onec a bill has passed this House and then ask for a verification of the roll, and the roll has been verified, I don't think it is showing courtesy either to the member or to the desk. Gentlemen, I hope that you will sustain the bill that was passed here yesterday evening. I don't think it is a square deal. If they are dissatisfied with the bill, let them go to the other side and fight it out.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I did not expect to enter into this controversy, but it has assumed such a state that it is necessary. There is not a bill that has been on the calendar of this House which has been objected to with more vehemence by our constituents down in Lancaster County, and I think other members of the House can agree with me, as others have objected just as vehemently to this fish license bill. We are entitrely satisfied if this bill passes this House on a square count, but this vote was not a fair vote. We know of at least four men who are recorded in that verified roll as voting "aye" who were not in this House. All that we ask for is, that if you are going to put this legislation over, that you do it fair.

For that reason we ask that the members stand by this resolution and have this bill called back from the Senate for full and fair consideration by this House.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Lancaster (Mr. Hess) will suspend until the gentleman from Clearfield (Mr. Phillips) states his point of order.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that if there was anything wrong with the polling of the vote on this bill it should have been raised at the time the vote was taken and not now.

The SPEAKER. The speaker was not in the Chair at the time the vote on this bill was taken, but is informed that the vote was verified after the roll was called.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, it was my honor to have been in the Chair at the time the vote was taken on this bill. I gave the House opportunity, and fair opportunity for the correction of that roll, as the House will remember, and after the positive vote on the bill, I put it to the House, "are there any other changes to be made?" There were not any changes to be made, and consequently we passed on to the verification of the negative roll and like request was made and the same answer, "No further changes." As far as the recording of the votes go, that is up to the desk and, naturally, the Speaker cannot say, but as far as the verification of the roll taking place, that was absolutely verified.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen of the House, I think that this is an imposition on this Legislature. Just because there happens to be two or three members who do not want to see this get through, and whom their constitutuents have asked to fight this bill, for these members to get up and ask for a reconsideration of the bill after it is passed. It is one of the revenue raisers of this session. One of the most important revenue raisers for this State. When we are asking the Legislature to give us everything they can for hospitals and schools, not to pass this revenue raiser, which will produce four to five hundred thousand dollars, I think it is an imposition to try to vote this bill down after we have passed it and passed it right.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will state that it has been his experience in and out of the Chair that very frequently members do not answer to their names, and they wonder afterwards why they have been recorded, as they find they are. It is very difficult at times for the clerks to determine how a member votes, and every member has a right at any time after a vote is taken to ask for a verification. The Clerks, of course, are apt to make mistakes and sometimes do, but in defense of the Clerks, I will say this: That it is very difficult, the way some of the members answer to their names, to determine whether they have voted or whether they have not. The Chair has repeatedly requested that the members when voting answer in a loud tone of voice so that they can be distinctly heard by the Clerks at the desk.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: We are not hereto-day questioning the honesty and sincerity of any official in this House. We believe that the Speaker of the hour meant to be perfectly fair. We believe, sir, that the Clerks meant to be perfectly fair; but for any gentleman to come on the floor of this House and say that we have no right to make a petition of this kind, that it is aboslutely unfair, I say to you, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House. I am surprised at the individual making it, after the record of this House during its entire session. Bills have been passed by this House and gone over to the Senate and passed the Senate and have gone to the Governor and then have been recalled. I say to you, sir and sirs, that this is a bill that my constituency is opposed to. It is one of the very few, indeed, that we have come before you and asked for a reconsideration of, and I appeal to you, gentlemen of the House, at this hour, notwithstanding the advanced period of the session, to give us just a little time; treat us fairly, if you please, for, after all, Mr. Speaker, this is all that we or any fair-minded men in this House or State plead for,—justice and fair play,—and I sincerely hope, gentlemen of the House, that you will agree with us and give us a chance to reconsider this bill. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The question recurs on the adoption of the resolution on which a roll call has been requested. The Chair will request that the members retain their seats while the roll is being called. The members discussing affairs with one another interfere with the proper taking of the vote and therefore the Chair requests them to desist while the roll is being called.

Mr. ZOOK. Mr. Speaker, some of the members in the rear of the House do not understand the question before the House.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will again read the resolution.

The resolution was then read by the Clerk.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. HESS and Mr. DIEHM and were taken.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded as voting "No."

The SPEAKER. If no objection, the gentleman will be so recorded.

Mr. COLDSMITH. Mr. Speaker, I wish to be recorded as voting "No."

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will be so recorded.

Mr. RINN. Mr. Speaker, I voted under a misapprehension.

The SPEAKER. The roll will be verified.

The affirmative roll was then called and verified as follows:

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, the vote on which the gentleman from Lehigh (Mr. Rinn) is recorded has already been verified.

The SPEAKER. The roll has not been verified as yet. The roll is open to correction. The gentleman having stated that he voted under a misapprehension, the Chair will direct the correction to be made.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, has not the affirmative roll been verified?

The SPEAKER. The roll itself has not been verified.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, but the affirmative roll on which the gentleman from Lehigh is recorded has been verified.

The SPEAKER. The affirmative roll has not been verified as yet.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, has not the Chair so announced, that the affirmative roll was verified?

The SPEAKER. The Chair understands the gentleman from Lehigh (Mr. Rinn) raised and raised at the proper time. He raised before the vote was verified. This is the second time that the gentleman from Lehigh (Mr. Rinn) rose to announce that fact, and the Chair recognized him before.

Mr. SPEAKER. If there are no other corrections or alterations, the negative roll stands as verified.

So the question was determined in the negative and the resolution not agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1060, file folio 6489, on page 27 of today's calendar, bills on final passage.

Agreeably to order.

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1060, as follows:

An Act to amend section one of an act approved the fourteenth day of April one thousand nine hundred and five (Pamphlet Laws one hundred sixty-nine) entitled "An Act making it unlawful to trespass upon land posted as private property and providing the penalty therefor" permitting persons to lawfully hunt and fish on wild or unimproved or unenclosed lands other than game preserves lands used for hospital or resort purposes

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section one of an act approved the fourteenth day of April one thousand nine hundred and five (Pamphlet Laws one hundred sixty-nine) entitled "An Act making it unlawful to trespass upon land posted as private property and providing the penalty therefor" which reads as follows

"Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That from and after the passage of this act it shall be unlawful for any person wilfully to enter upon any land within the limits of this Commonwealth where the owner or owners of said land has caused to be prominently posted upon said land printed notices that the said land is private property and warning all persons from trespassing thereon under the penalties provided in this act" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That from and after the passage of this act it shall be unlawful for any person willfully to enter upon any land within the limits of this Commonwealth where the owner or owners of said land has caused to be prominently posted upon said land printed notices that the said land is private property and warning all persons from trespassing thereon under the penalties provided in this act. Provided however That the provisions of this act shall not prohibit any person from lawfully hunting or fishing on wild or unimproved or unenclosed lands other than public State game preserves auxiliary State game preserves properly licensed private preserves and lans set apart to hospitals or sanatorium or park resort uses notwithstanding that such wild or unimproved lands are posted as provided for in this act

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Schuylkill (Mr. Palmer).

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Schuylkill (Mr. Palmer) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, I will.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the purpose of this bill in a general way.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of the bill is to allow a hunter to hunt on uninclosed land, land which is not in use for any purpose, but which is in a wild state, and to give the hunters of Pennsylvania the right to hunt or fish on that land, and to repeal that section of the trespass law which makes a man a criminal in going on wild land.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, does not this amendment provide that in case you own a large tract of land and have it posted the hunters can still trespass on it?

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, if it is inclosed land they have no right to trespass upon it. This bill does not allow anybody to go on inclosed land.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I suppose the members of this House have examined this bill. It strikes me as being a very obnoxious bill, a bill that says to a man that he cannot do as he pleases with his own property. Now any bill—I do not care what the purposes are—that says to a man that he cannot do as he pleases with his own property, whether it is inclosed or not, is not such a bill that should receive the "aye" vote of this House. If it pertained, and only pertained, to tracts of land up in the State where, as I understand they are rented or leased by some gunning club, which prohibits other people from leasing it or gunning on it, it might be different. But it even includes lands consisting of from twenty to twenty-five and thirty acres in a city like Philadelphia. There are some unimproved tracts of lands in Chester County, Montgomery County and Delaware County that are not inclosed. The gunners could go out there and without any care of whose property they are destroying, destroy the property. Therefore, I am calling your attention to this fact. It is practically saying to a man that he cannot do as he pleases with his own property.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Delaware (Mr. Alexander), I wish to state to the members of this House that this bill does not legalize any person doing damage to another person's property. He has a misapprehension of the purpose of the bill. This bill is to take care of the poor man and allow him to go out on the wild lands of the State of Pennsylvania and hunt. This bill is to prevent a corporation or individual from going out on the wild lands and posting a notice and keeping us poor people off. The wild land of Pennsylvania is a natural preserve given by the Divine Creator to all of us. Why should we be prevented from hunting on it simply because a corporation or body of men buy up this land? Why should we not be permitted to enjoy the privileges of hunting on it? It does not apply to the land in Philadelphia, but applies to the wild land in different parts of the State of Pennsylvania, and provides that this land shall not be bought up by corporations and posted in order to prevent us from hunting on it.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania owns upward of 1,250,000 acres of wild land throughout the State, where game and fish are found in abundance. The State is adding to its acreage each year. These lands are open to the people referred to by Mr. Phillips, the poor people of the State, where they can go with perfect freedom and hunt and fish to their heart's content. The Forestry Department, under the act of 1915, is empowered to issue camp and cottage space to the people of this State that they might go to those lands for health and recreation. To-day thousands of people go to those lands. Now, to pass this bill and restrict the property owners of controlling their own lands and opening them to the public, I say, is extreme legislation and goes too far.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, I wish to say in reply to the gentleman from Tioga when they passed the Trespass Act of this assembly some years ago, that that was vicious legislation. I say in reply to the gentleman from Delaware that a man who owns lands and another trespasses upon them, he has a civil action for that trespasser who commits damage upon that land. When you recover damages in a court for trespass, you may put the defendant to jail until he makes good what damage he has done, but to permit poor men in Pennsylvania to travel upon the unimproved lands, the lands in the wild state, the lands given by God to these people, if this is vicious legislation then commend me to vicious legislation as long as I live. To meet with the next objection of some of these gentlemen, I will agree to it that it shall be put in this bill, and I ask the House, as a matter of free air, simply to give these men of Pennsylvania their license. We voted a bill for a fishing license upon any land where they cannot do damage; land that is unimproved and that it may be used for recreation. One of the things is to secure harmony between the rich and the poor; one of the things which we are trying to do is to harmonize social conditions so that differences might not exist. That is why I ask you to support this bill; that is why I say: If this is vicious legislation, then commend me to vicious legislation as long as I live.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, just one word more: Yesterday this House passed a bill looking to taxing fishermen one dollar per year for the privilege of going upon State lands for the purpose of fishing. Who places the fish in these public streams of the State? The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The gentleman now says this law, or the laws of the State, discriminate against the poor man. I say to him, that the bill passed yesterday taxes the resident fishermen of the State of Pennsylvania one dollar a year, discriminates against the poor man? There are two classes of fishermen in the State of Pennsylvania; one class is made up of retired salaried and professional men, who can without cost to themselves for loss of time take a day off for fishing, and they take many of them when so inclined. To them the one dollar proposed by this bill is nothing. The other class is made up of the day laborer, many of them just as true sportsmen as those in the other class, who ordinarily, because of the loss of wage, are limited to one day and possibly two, during each season, and for them to be compelled to pay the one dollar in addition to losing their day's wage, will be a hardship.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Tioga is not speaking to the subject.

The SPEAKER. The point of order of the gentleman from Allegheny is not well taken. The gentleman from Tioga will proceed.

Mr. WILLIAMS (Cont'd). There are thousands just as true sportsmen to be found in the other class. True this does not bear on the bill under consideration, but it does apply to the argument of the gentleman from Schuylkill that this bill is in the interest of the poor man.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, I agree that the bill in the Senate shall be amended so that the word "unseated" shall be put into it. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: I am willing at any time to compare my labor record with the gentleman from Tioga. In my three terms as a member of this House I never wilfully voted against labor, and any labor bill introduced in this assembly has had my vote and my record will bear me out. When the fish license bill came up on its first passage, I voted against it, because I felt my constituents did not want the bill; and I went back home and I explained to them why I thought the fish commissioner's argument was right and we should have the money to keep stocking the streams of Pennsylvania, and after a fair talk with my constituents ,they agreed that I was to vote for the bill. I was representing them both times, but let me tell you, I am willing to put the dollar license on them only when they get the dollar license I want them to make good and give them the right to fish out what they have paid for. But if you put a dollar license on these fishermen and when they go out to fish, under this bill, they are criminals. I would like to know how the gentleman from Tioga can consistently make his stand. I want them to get the right to get their dollar's worth and not make criminals of them when they go on wild, unimproved land, and unseated land. I am ready to go back home to my people in Schuylkill County any day and explain to them anything I do on the floor of this House. I have never voted for any bill in which I was not mindful of their interests and their welfare, and I believe that my men back in Schuylkill will stand by me at any time on my record. I do not apologize for it to any men in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, be he big or little; be he rich or poor. I do the best I can and if I have made any mistakes, they were mistakes of the head and never mistakes of the heart.

Mr. SHOWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Schuylkill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Schuylkill, (Mr. Palmer), permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. SHOWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to know whether, under the provisions of this bill, a farmer out here in the valley on whose farm there is four or five acres, can be protected from trespassing on those acres for the purpose of hunting.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, as I have said before, I will agree to adding the word "unseated;" I will agree that it be put in there. That would not be "unseated" land; of course the farmer could keep them off.

Mr. SHOWALTER. Mr. Speaker, that still does not satisfy me. The word "unimproved" and the word "unseated" are not synonymous terms. Naturally, under the decisions of the court of this State, a piece of woodland or a ridge on a farm would be "unimproved land" and under this bill a farmer could not prevent hunters from going on ridges of that kind. It seems to me that we are trying to strip property holders of too many of their vested rights. I agree with the gentleman from Schuylkill (Mr. Palmer) that it is not right that corporations should be permitted to buy up large tracts of woodland in the mountains and post them against trespassing and keep the men from hunting and fishing thereon, but I do draw the line when it would permit them to go upon farms where there are some strips of woodland and ridges to hunt and fish.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, I would agree to amend the bill so that they shall not be included, but it seems to me to be a poor argument that an isolated case here and there should stop a general proposition.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen of the House: There has been a whole lot said by the sponsor of this bill about the laboring man and the poor man being taken care of in this act. If I had one hundred acres or a thousand acres of my own, I would be very glad to invite my good friend from Schuylkill (Mr. Palmer) and all the rest of the laboring men to come out and gun thereon whenever they wanted; but there is nothing in this bill except a proposition to get a few votes. I said if I had land of my own I would say to every man in this Commonwealth: "Come out and enjoy yourself and I will be glad to have you do so;" but I am not in favor, and neither is any laboring man in this House or out willing to say that they should go on another man's land and take his rights away from him, and I will not vote for any such an act as that. It is alright if we are going to give these privileges for our own lands which we have the right to do, but it is not right that we should give away these privileges to lands belonging to somebody else which we have no right to do.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I am very glad that I had an opportunity to give the gentleman from Schuylkill (Mr. Palmer) a chance to defend his labor record in this House. Now, Mr. Speaker, there are just two thoughts that I desire to bring to his attention: Section 122 of the Fishing Code says: "The Commissioner of Fisheries shall make free distribution or planting of the fish produced at the State fish hatcheries." First, where? "To the public waters of the Commonwealth within the State forestry reserves." Again; "Any natural stream or lake in this Commonwealth, which has been or may be stocked with fish furnished by the Commonwealth or the Department of Fisheries, shall be open to the public for the purpose of lawful fishing." In the face of these provisions which open the lands of this State belonging to the Commonwealth for hunting and the streams for fishing, the gentleman from Schuylkill county yesterday voted to require the resident fishermen to pay a license tax for fishing in the streams of this State, stocked by the State, which are free to the laboring man as well as to the people as a whole.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Tioga (Mr. Williams).

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Tioga (Mr. Williams) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WILLIAMS. Certainly, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman whether he understands the provision that he just read to prevent a man who owns land on either side of these streams from posting his land.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, that has nothing to do with this bill.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, it has all to do with it, for if he has to wade to the middle of the stream to do his fishing, he has got to get on the land, and is a trespasser as soon as the notices are put up. Is that not right?

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, the point that I wanted to make in these remarks was that the State stocks these streams and that they are open to the public and that the gentleman from Clearfield (Mr. Phillips) as well as the others in the majority, voted to tax the resident fishermen, including the laboring men as well as others, for the privilege of fishing in these public streams.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman whether a man can fish, under this act if there are wild lands and the lands are posted.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, if public streams.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman if there are public streams, can a man fish and gun without trespassing on the land? For instance, suppose you own a piece of land in your county and the Commissioner of Fisheries stocks that stream which goes through your land, does that prevent you from putting up notices to prevent me from going on your land and fishing, even then?

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I take it that the Department of Fisheries cannot go far enough to enter private lands that are posted.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to further interrogate the gentleman from Tioga (Mr. Williams).

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Tioga (Mr. Williams) permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. WILLIAMS. Certainly, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Tioga (Mr. Williams) stated a few moments ago, in his first talk, that the State provided lands for the poor man to hunt on. I would like to ask him how many acres the State owns in the State of Pennsylvania?

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I think about one million, two hundred and fifty thousand acres, and they are adding to the acreage right along.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman how many acres of this land is in his own county.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I should say upwards of thirty thousand acres.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman how many acres of wild land there are in his county outside the State's holdings.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I could not state exactly, but I know there are many, many thousands of acres of mountain and timber land.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, the point that I wanted to make is that there are many counties in the State of Pennsylvania in which there are no wild lands. The gentleman's argument would compel people to go to his county and to my county for the purpose of hunting and fishing.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, this bill has increased so much in importance that I feel we ought to have a full House to decide upon it. I, therefore, move that further consideration of it be postponed for the present.

Mr. McINTYRE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

REQUEST TO INTRODUCE A RESOLUTION.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The SPEAKER. Is there any objection?

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objections.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I have heard it whispered and yelled across the floor of the House that everybody is a friend of labor, when they are discussing a fish bill, or a dog bill, or anything of that kind. I want to say to you that when I asked for unanimous consent to introduce a meritorious resolution, it was objected to, but when others ask for unanimous consent to have their bills read for the first time, it was readily given. I want to say to you that the resolution I desired to offer was one that the people in my locality have fought for for years,—mine cave legislation. This resolution does not harm any man unless the coal corporations control it—

The SPEAKER. The Chair will request the gentleman to confine himself to his question of personal privilege.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I do not believe that I am being treated right in this House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will state that that is a matter entirely for the House, that when the question of unanimous consent is raised, any member of the House, under the rules, can object. The same question might have been raised by the gentleman from Clearfield (Mr. Phillips) when he attempted to introduce an important resolution yesterday. The gentleman will please confine himself to the question of personal privilege.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. James A. Walker) objected to my resolution because he said there were bills that ought to be passed—

The SPEAKER. The Chair at this time would call the attention of the gentleman to the fact that no member can criticise another member on the floor of the House.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know his reason for objecting when I asked for unanimous consent to introduce the resolution.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, if I may be permitted to answer the gentleman I might say to him that my objection to the introduction of his resolution was twofold. First, there is a time under the rules of the House to offer resolutions, and that time had passed. Second, under the resolution which we adopted from the Committee on Rules, the hour of one o'clock having arrived, it was proper to adjourn. There are committees waiting to hold meetings immediately after adjournment in order to report back to the House at a later hour in the day. That is why I felt we should not interfere with the orderly movement of the House.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, there are also rules of the House—

RECESS.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman must confine himself to the question. The hour of one o'clock having arrived, the Chair declares a recess until four o'clock this afternoon, at which time the gentleman from Lackawanna will be heard.

Whereupon, (at 1:00 o'clock P. M.) the House took a recess until 4:00 o'clock P. M.

AFTER RECESS.

The House reconvened at 4:00 o'clock P. M.
The SPEAKER (Robert S. Spangler) in the Chair.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, this is a very meritorius piece of legislation, and I realize the importance at this time of getting it through without the regular order. I do not know why anyone would object to this legislation, and I ask at this time the unanimous consent of the House to have this resolution introduced.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Lackawanna (Mr. Fowler) offers a resolution and asks unanimous consent to have it considered at this time. The Clerk will read the resolution.

The Clerk then read the resolution as follows:

Moved by Mr. FOWLER, seconded by Mr. DAWSON, A Resolution, Whereas, A situation prevails in the anthracite coal fields, where the homes of our citizens are being daily destroyed by the malicious mining of coal; And Whereas, The people of Scranton and its vicinity have labored hard for the passage of a mine-cave bill now pending in the Senate, giving a measure of protection and relief to this ever-increasing tragedy; And Whereas, Through the destruction of said mine caves many lives have been lost and others are still in constant danger; be it Resolved, That we, the members of the House of Representatives, ask the Senate to take immediate action on this important legislation.

The SPEAKER. This is not a concurrent resolution, and cannot be messaged to the Senate. The House can express here a request, but it is very uncourteous for the House to request the other House to do certain things at a certain time, or to advise the other House how its business shall be transacted; and if it is to be done, it should be done in the form of a concurrent resolution.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, it states on it that it is a concurrent resolution. I will state, Mr. Speaker—

The SPEAKER. The Chair will state that it is a motion and not a resolution at all.

Mr. DAWSON. Mr. Speaker, what action is the House going to take on the motion?

The SPEAKER. What did the gentleman say?

Mr. DAWSON. Has the House taken action on the motion? Is there any reason why the House should not take action on the motion?

The SPEAKER. The House in itself can take action, but there is no way in which the motion can be transmitted to the Senate. If the gentleman desires to offer the motion in this form, the Chair will put the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BENCHOFF. Mr. Speaker, this bill was defeated last week and was replaced on the calendar for our consideration at this time with very minor amendments. As it stands today, it is exactly what I would call class legislation. The bill provides for the retirement of teachers on superannuation. In the original bill, teachers who have arrived at seventy years of age were to retire. This bill provides that principals, superintendents and men at the head of schools who can command large salaries, should have that privilege at their own discretion. I consider it a bad bill, therefore, I ask you to vote it down.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, at the request of the chairman of the Committee on Education, I move that this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to announce that tomorrow morning we will have third reading bills and it is requested that the members remain over, because if they do not many of these bills now on the calendar will fail of passage because of not being reached in time.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1349, entitled

An Act to amend an act entitled "An Act classifying and extending the terms of office of councilmen in certain boroughs in this Commonwealth" approved the nineteenth day of July Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws eleven hundred and nine)

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, I believe this is the bill that reduces the number of councilmen from seven to five. I would ask the sponsor of the bill to explain its purpose.

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, this bill only affects the borough of Nanticoke. At present it has thirteen councilmen, and at one election they elect eleven members and at another, two. This bill is to equalize it so that they will elect six at one time and seven at another. It affects but one borough in the State.

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

An Act to provide for payment of rent in insolvency proceedings against tenants

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, the sponsor of this bill is not in the hall of the House at present, and I, therefore, move that further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. GANS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1460 (Senate Bill No. 850), entitled

An Act to further amend an act approved the fifth day of March one thousand nine hundred and six (Pamphlet Laws sixty-three) entitled "An Act to provide for the personal registration of electors in cities of the third class of this commonwealth to make such registration a condition of the right to vote in such cities and to provide penalties for violation of its provisions" as amended

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

MOTION TO RECONSIDER BILL.

Mr. HALDEMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Elections for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. POWELL. I think, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, that if you give this bill your closest attention that you will find that it is worthy of your most earnest consideration. It just simply provides this fact: In our particular county we have proof beyond a question of doubt that it is necessary for us to have some time to purge our lists on the day of the primary or the day before the election. This bill makes no radical change. The only thing it provides for is that anybody who shall be eligible to be listed as a voter at the primary or at the election must be registered at least three days before the last day. You have a rule of this kind in your second and first class cities. Gentlemen, I do not think there is any occasion to have this bill referred back to committee.

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, the reason we want to recommit this bill is to put it into better shape. The amendments will not bother the portion that Mr. Powell speaks about. There are other things that can be put in to make it a much better bill than it is now, and it will not hurt the bill by being recommitted, amended and reported back to the House next Monday.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I would suggest to the gentleman who desires to recommit the bill and make any amendments in the Elections Committee, that unless he is sure what the Election Committee will do, he had better not refer the bill back to that committee. I happen to be a member of that committee, and know how it works, and unless he has good reasons for the amendments he would better let the bill on the calendar.

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman who desires to amend this bill why it was not amended on second reading?

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, it was supposed to have been done on second reading, but was overlooked.

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: I trust you will vote this motion down. There is no reason why this bill should not pass this House now. It is a meritorious bill.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I think that this bill ought to go to the Elections Committee and they can trim it up better than we can.

Mr. ROBERT L. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I hope you will not recommit this bill at this time. I think this is a very good bill. Its provisions are eminently fair, and I believe it will prevent a lot of injustice being done in registration. I am very fearful that if it should be recommitted at this time, it would mean the death of the bill. I hope the House will not recommit it.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

And said bill having been read at length the third time, eration of House Bill No. 1666 (Senate Bill No. 514), entitled

An Act to amend the act approved the fourteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred fifteen (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and twelve) entitled "An Act providing a system of government for boroughs and revising amending and consilidating the law relating to boroughs"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. This bill, gentlemen, I think is not a proper bill for this reason: before the Act of 1915, the only way to collect municipal claims was by a lien. You had to file that lien within six months, otherwise you could not collect the lien for paving or improvements. The Act of 1915 came along and provided that besides the remedy of collecting by municipal liens you could collect by assumpsit, that is, by a suit in debt. The advantage of that is this: instead of filing your lien in six months, the municipality ,borough or city, or whatever it was, would give the owner of the property all the time they possibly could to pay the claim, rather than to file a lien against the property. In many instances they failed to file the lien within six months, and, therefore, lost the claim. Under the Act of 1915, you could go for two years before suing out in assumpsit, and it would, therefore, give the property owner that much more time to pay the claim. This stood until this bill came along, which provides that the suit must be brought within the same time that a municipal lien must be filed; and it therefore means that the borough or city must bring the suit within six months—either file the lien or proceed in assumpsit. This would give the property owner less time to pay his claim than he otherwise would have. I think the law should remain as it is, and give to the property owner as much time as possible in paying any claims against his property.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

SENATE.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Edward E. Beidleman) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Acting Chaplain, Rev. C. G. Jordan, D. D., offered the following prayer:

We thank Thee, O God, that Thou dost hear and answer prayer, that it is possible for finite minds and spirits to be quickened by the infinite. Give unto us the wisdom and conscience needed for direction for the solving of the problems that are before us. We beseech Thee that Thou wilt be especially near to this body of men at this hour because of the departure of one of the members whom we knew, respected and loved. We ask Thee that Thou wilt draw very near to his bereaved wife and children; give unto them, O God, the comfort and the consolation at this time that Thou alone canst give. We thank Thee that death does not end all, but that it is an opening for the beginning of the unfolding towards the infinite of the mind and of the spirit. We ask in Thy name. Amen.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. H. Feldmann, offered the following prayer:

O God, again it is brought to our notice that Thou, in Thine infinite wisdom, hast seen fit to call forth from this body of legislators one who has served here, and will serve no longer. It is the second time that this Senate has been visited by Thee, and may it make us all mindful that there is an appointed hour awaiting everyone of us. We ask Thee that Thou wilt look tenderly down upon those who are deeply concerned in the death of him who served the State, and may there be those marks in his activity that shall be to him a monument, better than anything man can erect, in the good he has done and the service that he has rendered. Let it be to us a warning, we pray Thee, that we, too, may mark the hour, though we know it not, by a service that shall be diligent, and honest, and faithful, and watchful, so that we shall not be fearful of that last hour; but that, when it comes, it shall find us busy about the business wherein we are concerned, and ready to give a good account unto Thee for the actions and deeds done. Amen.

QUESTION OF QUORUM.

The SPEAKER. We will now take up the appropriation bills.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I object to the transaction of any business on the calendar, the passing of bills on first, second and third reading. I do not think there is a quorum here, and how can you pass these bills legally?

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman raise the question of "no quorum?"

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I submit there is not a quorum present in this House.

MOTION TO ADJOURN.

Mr. ROBERT L. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

Mr. SHOWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER. The Chair is very regretful that he has to accept a motion of this kind at this time. There is business on the calendar that the House can perfectly well transact this morning. The Chair is as regretful as any member that the members of this House do not attend the sessions on Thursday, the Chair having resorted to every means of persuasion to hold the House in session, apparently without effect, and were the Chair to take extreme measures at this time, in order to bring a quorum here, by the time a sufficient number of members were here the House would then be ready to adjourn. The Chair very much regrets that at this late season of the session the members have become so derelict and he trusts that next week there will a fuller attendance of the members of this House. It may and, in all probability, will be necessary next week to hold a session on Friday. These appropriation bills must be taken care of, and if we do not do it to-day we must do it later.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I do not care if I have to sit here Saturday and Sunday, if necessary. This is the third session that I have had the honor of attending this Legislature as a member, and I can say to the members of this House that I think I am probably the only member who has not missed a sitting in the 1915 and 1917 sessions, and there is only one Wednesday session I have missed this time, and I think if I can stay here and help legislate for the State, the other members can too. The difficuty and trouble has been, and I have called the attention of the House to it, to permit bills to be placed on the postponed calendar and permit bills to be placed on special order, which has delayed the business of this House by reason thereof. You take the bill that was on the calendar on special order for 11:30 A. M. yesterday, and because of the lightness of the House, the motion was made to postpone that special order until Monday evening for the reason that on Monday evening we have a full attendance; consequently, the members stay, knowing that this bill of such importance, in which they were interested, was postponed, they left here thinking that we would pass their bills on first and second reading. I do not think it is fair to us for them to expect us to stay here and legislate for them and if it necessary to bring them back here, I say "Bring them back," as far as I am concerned.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, you have my sympathy in your pleading with the members of this House, continually during this session, trying to get them to stay here to transact business. We are now in the closing hours of the session. One week from to-day we propose to drop from the third reading calendar all House bills on the calendar, because the last week of the session is for the purpose of enacting the Senate bills. In looking over the calendar at the present time, I find that on third reading calendar for Monday evening there were thirty-six bills from the previous week. Of these we have either passed, defeated or postponed,—one thing or the other,—twenty-one of the third reading bills of last week, leaving fifteen bills on the third reading calendar that were there at the close of the session on last Thursday. We also have two hundred and fifty-two appropriation bills on the third reading calendar for to-day. We have three bills on final passage, recalled from the Governor. On the final passage postponed calendar there are thirty bills——

The SPEAKER. The Chair would at this time state that, in all probability, both the Chair and the House are well acquainted with the condition of the calendar at this time. Of course, if the motion to adjourn should prevail, it will just throw back the work of the House that much more.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ROBERT L. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, I am very sorry to have felt it necessary to make the motion to adjourn——

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. DAWSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. DAWSON. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that the motion to adjourn is not debatable.

The SPEAKER. The Chair rules that the point of order is well taken.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. ROBERT L. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Lawrence (Mr. Robert L. Wallace) will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. ROBERT L. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, I do not want to adjourn; I want to stay here and transact the business, or assist in transacting the business of this House; but, Mr. Speaker, I do not want to be a party to putting this State to the expense of several thousands of dollars in bringing the members of the House back here to this Capitol to attend to their sworn duties. If it is the sense of this House that we should not adjourn, I will be glad to withdraw my motion.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

APPROPRIATION BILLS ON FIRST READING.

The SPEAKER. The first bill on the calendar is House Bill No. 542, file folio 6699, on page three of to-day's calendar.

QUESTION OF QUORUM.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, it requires the vote of two-thirds of the members of this House to pass these appropriation bills. I am not speaking of a majority, but it requires a two-thirds vote of the members of this House to pass these appropriation bills I do not want to put the House on record in regard to this. It is not our fault, those of us members who are here, that these bills are delayed. The House placed on the calendar as a Special Order for Monday night two factional election bills. When the members found out that they probably would not come up, or that it was put on as a Special Order for Monday night, they left and left us at the mercy of the House. It is unfair. These two election bills will amend laws, one that has been in force for fourteen years and the other one for twenty-four years. These bills are for the purpose of disrupting the Republican party, not only in Philadelphia but in the entire State of Pennsylvania. These bills were put on Special Order. I am not speaking of any factionalism now, but it is for the purpose of putting out the present organization because it is not in favor of the independent movement in this great Commonwealth. When these bills were put on Special Order for Monday night, the people interested in them immediately left for their homes, leaving those of us who remained at the mercy of this House. I object to the passage of any bills at this time.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I am not in favor of adjourning. I am in favor of us going along and passing these appropriation bills and getting them off the calendar. I will state my reason for this: We have bills of much interest, especially the Compensation Bill which has been under consideration in the Senate for months. That bill is now on third reading in the Senate and will likely be passed next Monday evening. In order that that Compensation Bill will have time to pass this House, we must get rid of the bills now on our calendar. We, as laboring men, do not intend to see the calendar loaded up so that the Compensation Bill gets so placed on the calendar that, like last session, it is going to die on the calendar. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I hope that this House will proceed to business and pass these bills in order that we can unload the calendar.

MOTION TO ADJOURN.

Mr. SHOWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was not agreed to.

QUESTION OF QUORUM.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will call the roll to ascertain the presence of a quorum. The sergeant-at-arms will close the doors.

The roll was then called on the question of a quorum, and was as follows:

MOTION TO ADJOURN.

Mr. SHOWALTER. Mr. Speaker, under the authority vested in this House by the Constitution, in Article II, Section 10, I move this House adjourn until to-morrow morning at 10:00 o'clock.

Mr. CORBIN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

QUESTION OF INFORMATION.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, cannot the House transact any business whatever in the absence of a quorum?

The SPEAKER. The House, under the section of the Constitution mentioned in the motion of the gentleman from Union (Mr. Showalter) can adjourn from day to day; less than a quorum can adjourn from day to day.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I move to amend the motion of the gentleman from Union (Mr. Showalter) that we adjourn until Monday evening at 9:00 o'clock.

The SPEAKER. The constitutional provision is that the House shall adjourn from day to day.

The question before the House is on the motion of the gentleman from Union (Mr. Showalter).

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Mr. SHOWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I do not see any necessity of our sitting here in this House during the time the sergeant-at-arms is getting in these absent members. We cannot transact any business, and there is no use sitting here. The only thing we can do is to adjourn. Mr. Speaker, there is not a thing this House can do when we have no quorum but adjourn.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is of the same opinion as the gentleman from Union (Mr. Showalter). The only thing this House can do is to adjourn until to-morrow morning.

ADJOURNMENT OUT OF RESPECT TO THE MEMORY OF HONORABLE JAMES M. CAMPBELL, LATE SENATOR FROM FIFTIETH SENATORIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. SHOWALTER. Mr. Speaker, in accordance with the resolution adopted on the death of Honorable James M. Campbell, late Senator from the Fiftieth Senatorial District, I move that this House do now adjourn until to-morrow morning at 10:00 o'clock.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 11:30 o'clock A. M.) the House adjourned until to-morrow morning at 10:00 o'clock.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. H. Feldmann, offered the following prayer:

O Lord God Almighty, grant unto us, we pray Thee, that the coming celebration on the morrow may be rich in everything that shall make for the highest and truest type of Christian manhood and patriotism. We beseech Thee that Thou wilt bless the day, and may sentiment be stirred up in our people that shall be both noble and true. May those colors, as they float in the breeze, by their redness, remind us of the sacrifices that have been made from the time when, first at Concord and down to the time of the Argonne Forest, men have been willing to sacrifice their blood for this land and May purity exist as white as the stripes, in which the homes shall be clean and business shall be noble and everything shall be conducted in legislative halls and in all colleges in every part of the land and State, and in the cities everywhere with a purity that shall be as clean as the sun; and may we ever turn our eyes upward and be reminded by the stars that only when Thou dost bless us shall we, indeed, have a blessing worth while; and may that flag indeed never be unfurled to greet the sun sullied and in shame, and may it never be brought down, we beseech Thee, in disgrace or defeat. Amen.

Mr. DRINKHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I ask leave of absence for my colleague, Mr. Dilsheimer. I visited him last night, and he is confined to his bed and unable to be here.

The SPEAKER. Are there any objections? The Chair hears none, and leave is granted.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I read from this morning's Philadelphia Record, June 13: "Vare trick is met by drastic action," is the heading. In another part, it reads: "Perceiving that far less than a quorum was in the House, the Vare members began their dirty work. Representative Glass served notice that he would object to the passage of appropriation bills, most of which require a two-thirds vote, and Representative Dunn served similar notice."

Mr. Speaker and gentleman of the House: I was elected a member of this House in the session of 1913, and all the members who have been elected since that time, my colleagues, will know that I have never taken any part in legislative work that was dirty or not been courteous to all. You men who have read the papers and come here to-day should know the truth. When we were elected to this session, my friends, we were informed by everybody who was interested in progressive legislation that there would be an early adjournment of this House, that the work of this House should be ended by the middle of April or the first of May.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is not speaking on the question of personal privilege. If the members of this House were to pay attention to every statement put into the newspapers, nothing would be done and nothing else could be done in this House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will request the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Dunn) to be very brief and to the point.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, if the opinion of the gentleman from Elk is the consensus of the opinion of this House, I am willing to submit to the dictates of the majority of the members of this House.

RULE NO. 54 SUSPENDED.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer a motion, and before doing so, I wish to preface that motion with a few remarks. A large number of the members of the House assumed it was their privilege to absent themselves during yesterday's session, which retarded the progress of the work of the calendar. A large majority of those members have responded to the call of the Speaker and are present to-day. I think now, Mr. Speaker, that the House should settle itself down and proceed with the calendar's work for to-day, and in view of that, Mr. Speaker, I move you, sir, that Rule 54, which calls for the hours of the day for Friday to adjourn at 11:00 o'clock A. M., be suspended, and that the time of adjournment be extended until 1:00 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of finishing the work of the day.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

ORDER OF BUSINESS ON CALENDAR.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, in order to expedite the work of the session in a practical way, I move, that in addition to revenue bills and appropriation bills, preference be given to House bills on first, second and third reading, which shall be the order of the coming week.

Mr. DAWSON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I wish to call the Speaker's attention to the fact that the proceedings you are going on with at this time are absolutely illegal. I will read from the rules of the House. No. 60, on page 1092: "No bills appropriating money for charitable or benevolent purposes will be considered further than second reading until after the General Appropriation Bill shall have been reported from committee."

The SPEAKER. The General Appropriation Bill has been reported out and has been read a second time, and has been recommitted.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion by the gentleman from Elk (Mr. Flynn), that in addition to revenue bills and appropriation bills, preference shall be given to House bills on first, second and third reading, which shall be the order of the coming week.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1510, entitled:

An Act Imposing certain duties upon assessors in the several counties with regard to returns of the taxable inhabitants within their respective townships wards and districts.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Beaver (Mr. Marshall) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MARSHALL. Yes, sir, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware (Mr. Alexander) will proceed.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Beaver (Mr. Marshall) wherein the proposed act differs from the act already in force.

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: In answer to the gentleman from Delaware (Mr. Alexander) I would say that this act provides that the assessors give the address of the taxable when they make their assessment. The present act does not require that. The purpose of this act is that in many boroughs, when the assessors make the assessment, they simply return the property as being in a particular ward; for instance, it simply says, "John Smith, Fifth ward" of a certain particular borough. When the collector comes around to collect the tax, he don't know this man Smith, and he don't knew where to find him. This condition grows out of a situation existing in towns where a great many people are laboring, and are simply roomers, and do not have homes in those districts, possibly single men rooming in private houses, and perhaps the first name is unknown and the assessor does not give sufficient information in his return so that the collector can locate the taxable when he comes to collect the tax. The present law does not require the assessors to give the address or street number and the street on which the property is assessed for taxable purposes. There is no additional cost connected with the work imposed on the assessor, and the work that the act requires him to do amounts to practically nothing.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman further.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware (Mr. Alexander) will proceed.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, we have in Delaware County instances of this kind, many of them, where people come out from Philadelphia and buy lots. They never give their address to anyone, and it is impossible to ever find where they live. For instance, I see to-day there is a tax sale in Ridley Township, Delaware County, of some five hundred lots. I dare say as to the owners of these lots, that while the names of the owners are known, there is no way under the sun of finding out their addresses. What effect will this have on the assessor of these lots if he is unable to find the owner's address?

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker, if the assessor cannot find the address he simply so returns it; but if he is able to locate the owner's address, it should be reported, and if he can locate it, of course, it will cover the very condition the gentleman from Delaware speaks about existing in his county.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman whether there should not be a proviso in this act that this assessment shall be valid in the event the assessor is unable or does not put the names and addresses in the assessment returns. It seems to me there is a danger there that unless the address and street number of the taxable is not put on the assessment it will invalidate the assessment.

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker, the act does not so provide; and if he cannot locate or does not know the taxable's address, if he make a return to that effect, he has complied with the act.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, the act does not provide that. It says he shall do it.

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker, it says he shall do this, but if he don't have the addresses and so returns, that is as much as he can do.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker, I move that further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.
On the question,
Will the House agree to the motion?
It was agreed to.

An Act to amend clause two of section three hundred and eighty-six of an act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred forty) entitled "An Act concerning townships and revising amending and consolidating the law relating thereto"

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?
Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I would just like to call attention to what this bill does. It provides that "On the petition of the owners of a majority of the lineal feet frontage along any highway or portion thereof in any village within the township to enter into contract with electric gas or other lighting companies to light and illuminate the streets highways and other public places in said villages with electric light gas light or other illuminant" The township supervisor shall levy for the maintenance of these rights against the property owners along these streets. In other words, it compels the property owners in the township to light the sreets of the township at their expense. That seems to be the meaning of the act and that additional expense should not be put upon the property owners in the township where these lights are of a benefit to the public at large. The debt should be paid by the township at large and not be the property owners who have these lights put along the streets.
On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?
Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:
